

Committee on the Rights of Persons Deprived of Liberty

- a. To conduct announced and unannounced field visits, to monitor the human rights situation in correctional and rehabilitation institutions, detention centers, labor gatherings, health and education centers, or any other public place in which it is suspected that human rights violations might take place, and to prepare the appropriate reports.
- b. Prepare reports on the status of persons deprived of their liberty within correctional and rehabilitation institutions and detention centers, on a regular basis, and make necessary observations and recommendations.
- c. To refer to the Complaints, Monitoring and Follow-up Committee the Committee observations during its visit to correctional and rehabilitation institutions, detention centers, as well as complaints from persons deprived of their liberty in such institutions and centers.
- d. To review the national legislations concerning the reform of the correctional and rehabilitation institutions and related regulations and resolutions, propose appropriate recommendations thereon, follow-up the implementation of the relevant international conventions and treaties, and formulate the proposals, recommendations and observations necessary for the safety of their application and submit them to the Chairperson or the Commission Bureau, or the Council of Commissioners.
- e. To contribute in the preparation of the draft parallel reports that the Kingdom undertakes to submit periodically, and to make observations thereon, as related to regional or international conventions pertaining to human rights.
- f. Any other competency referred to the Committee by the Chairperson, or the Council Bureau, or the Council of Commissioners.