

Statement by NIHR on International Women's Day

Manama on March 8, 2024

On the occasion of International Women's Day, the international community, including the Kingdom of Bahrain, celebrate this day on March 8th of each year, reaffirming women's achievements regardless of any other divisions such as nationality, ethnicity, language, culture, economic or political environment.

On the occasion of International Women's Day, the United Nations has designated 'Investing in Women for Accelerating Progress' as the theme for this year. Achieving gender equality has become more urgent than ever, and ensuring the rights of women and girls in all aspects of life is the only way to build thriving and equitable economies, and a healthy planet fit for future generations."

On the occasion of International Women's Day, the National Institution for Human Rights (NIHR) acknowledges the national efforts made by the Kingdom of Bahrain to protect and enhance women's rights in various fields and levels. This has enabled Bahraini women to move beyond empowerment stages to a stage of advancement, becoming active and leading partners in all fields.

On the occasion of International Women's Day, the National Institution for Human Rights (NIHR) reaffirms its commitment to monitoring and observing the extent of compliance with the international agreements and treaties ratified by the Kingdom of Bahrain concerning the protection of women's rights.
